Qualche parola per Sandro

Per Sandro le parole più semplici:

“Come era eccezionale stare seduti insieme su una panchina e discutere i poeti e gli scrittori dalla parola più potente. Mi manca la tua sconfinata intelligenza e la tua gioia di discutere, intendere e interpretare le opere di uno Shakespeare, di un Donne.”

Lettore accendi la tua lampada, non leggere le mie parole al buio. Sandro è capace di mutare in oro ogni istante della nostra conversazione. I suoi scritti focalizzano l'essenza della immaginazione umana.

In questa notte senza stelle, le sue parole mi immergono ancora in un'atmosfera di luce: Sandro è vivo, è sveglio: è la Morte che è morta, non Lui.

A Few Words for Sandro

The most simple words for Sandro:

“How wonderful it was to sit on a bench together and discuss the mightiest writers and poets.

I miss your boundless intelligence and bursting gladness in understanding and commenting on Shakespeare's works and Donne's”. Reader, light your lamp, let you not read my words in the dark.

Sandro is able to make all golden the minutes of our conversation.

His writings do unbind the utmost lowre of human imagination. In this starless night, his words still wrap me in an atmosphere of light. Sandro lives, he is awake. It is Death who is dead, not He.
